

euNetworks announces new executive appointments

- Uwe Nickl appointed as Chief Marketing Officer
- Richard Taylor appointed as General Counsel
- Claire Leake appointed as Vice President of Human Resources

London, United Kingdom – August 4, 2009 – euNetworks (SGX: H23.SI), provider of Pan-European, mission-critical, high-performance networking solutions, today announced a number of executive appointments to further support the company’s growth and drive the next phase of euNetworks’ development.

Uwe Nickl joined euNetworks as Chief Marketing Officer, based in Frankfurt, Germany. He will be responsible for Business Development, Products, Marketing and all Direct and Indirect Sales activities of the group, where he will lead the ongoing transformation of euNetworks as a customer centric organisation.

In his previous role Uwe served for Level 3 Communications as Senior Vice President for Strategy, Product and Marketing in Europe with global responsibility for the company’s subsea cable systems. Prior to this assignment he was Managing Director for Central and Eastern Europe for the company.

Richard Taylor was appointed as General Counsel, responsible to the company and the Board of Directors for all legal and compliance matters, including in relation to the Singapore Stock Exchange. Richard joined euNetworks from Olswang Solicitors, where he specialised in commercial dispute resolution in the technology and telecoms sectors.

Claire Leake joined euNetworks as Vice President of Human Resources, responsible for aligning euNetworks HR strategy to the growing demands of the rapidly transforming and expanding company. Claire joined euNetworks from Level 3 Communications, where she was Vice President responsible for Human Resources in Europe.

Commenting on the new appointments, Brady Rafuse, CEO of euNetworks said: “I am delighted to welcome Uwe, Richard and Claire to my management team. They bring extensive industry knowledge and experience to the team and will be tremendous assets to euNetworks as we continue to grow and build a truly 21st Century Telco. ”
